ANNUAL MAINTENANCE AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT entered into between: M/s < company name>, a company having Office at <address> hereinafter referred as 'SERVICE PROVIDER';

AND

The State Trading Corporation of India Ltd., STC Trade Centre, A/29, Thiru-Vi-Ka Industrial Estate, Guindy, Chennai 600032 having its Registered office at Jahawar Vyapar Bhavan, Tolstoy Marg, New Delhi 110 001 hereinafter referred as CUSTOMER;

COVERAGE: Service Provider undertakes to provide comprehensive maintenance cover to such equipment(s) in the premises of the customer for one year effective from 1st Apr 2013 to 31st Mar 2014 against payment of such maintenance charges in such manner described in the 'Schedule A' and for a part period from 1st Oct 2013 to 31st Mar 2014 against payment of such maintenance charges in such manner described in 'Schedule B' to this Agreement subject to such terms and conditions hereinafter stated.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

1. SERVICE PROVIDER offers comprehensive maintenance cover for a cost of Rs. <quote> inclusive of all taxes, to the equipments covered under this agreement, to ensure uninterrupted functioning, by rendering preventive maintenance and setting right any failure, breakdown or damage arising during the normal usage of equipment. The Customer shall pay all charges as per payment terms stipulated by Service Provider. Such payment is the essence of this Agreement. Customer shall pay the AMC charges in four quarterly equal installments, post service basis.
2. The periodicity and the nature of preventive maintenance service will be determined by the Service Provider, subject however to at least one such service call per month.
3. Breakdown service will be rendered as and when any breakdown, failure or damage to the equipment is reported, Service Provider endeavors to depute its service personnel at the earliest. Intimation of breakdown shall be given sufficiently in advance to prevent loss of time upto the commencement of service.
4. Breakdown service will normally be completed in less than four hours from the time of the Service Engineer starts attending to the problem reported. If the problem appears to be complicated and needs sophisticated testing equipment / tools, the defective spare / module / equipment will be taken to the workshop of Service Provider for further investigation and rectification. The system down time should not exceed 24 hours from the time at which the complaint was made. If the down time is more than 24 hours, Service Provider will provide a standby system. In case the system is not repaired or an alternative system not supplied within the period of 24 hours from the time of failure report then the Customer may choose to get the same repaired by or replaced from any other agency and the cost and expenditure incurred therein shall be recoverable from the Service Provider from the subsequent payments.

5. If it is found necessary to replace any part / component of the equipment in order to bring it to normal working condition, such replacement will be done on exchange basis. The replaced part component will become the property of Service Provider. No extra charges will be payable for replacement of parts covered by comprehensive maintenance. Service Provider will determine whether or not any part / component should be repaired / replaced and in the case of replacement, the nature and the quality of the component that would give equivalent performance.
6. This agreement does not cover any additions interfaces upgradations, expansions, alterations or modifications to the equipment which however can be undertaken by Service Provider on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon.
7. In the case of parts not covered under warranty or comprehensive maintenance covered for free replacement the same will be done at actual cost and depending upon the availability of spares.
8. However during the currency of the agreement, the customer is at liberty to add to or delete from, this schedule any numbers of desktops, and printers if so warranted. In case of addition of work, services will be performed; the same will be done on already agreed and settled rates for the main contract of maintenance.
9. This agreement does not cover any damage arising out of, whether wholly or partly or directly or indirectly, any misuse of the equipment or use under conditions not suitable to its functioning or in a manner not prescribed by the manufacturers or Service Provider and Service Provider shall not be held responsible for any delay, damage / loss due to external forces and calamities such as communication breakdown, agitation, strikes, acts of workmen, lockout, fire, water, electric disturbances, cyclone, storm, thefts, accidents, riots, war, civil disturbances, terrorist activities. The Customer may obtain suitable insurance protection as may be appropriate to cover relevant risk aforesaid.
10. Replacement of parts will not be applicable to stickers, floppy diskettes, consumables, stationery, covers of the equipment, printer knobs, printer band, printer ribbon and cassette, printer head, head cable and such other parts / items of similar nature and use unless otherwise they are covered under manufacturer's warranty.
11. The customer shall not, either by himself or through any other person, all the opening, altering or tampering with in any manner either the equipment or related items which result in impairing the internal system or operation of the equipment or modification of the configuration of the equipment without prior written approval of Service Provider.

12. Prior to the commencement of this agreement, the equipment to be covered by the maintenance service, will be inspected by Service Provider and if any defect or fault is found, the same, will be rectified against payment of charges and then only the equipment will qualify for the maintenance under this Agreement.
13. Customer will make all arrangements to back up the entire hard disk content as a safety measure. Service Provider shall not be held responsible for the hard disk content during repair / rectification of the hard disk / parts thereof. If it is due to negligence the service provider is liable to compensate the customer both through material and money.
14. The Customer shall not assign or transfer to any person whatsoever, any or all of the rights, privileges or obligations, except with the written prior approval of Service Provider.
15. The maintenance service under this Agreement will be rendered by persons deputed and or authorized by Service Provider operating from such location chosen according to the operational convenience.
16. The standby system and equipments as and when provided by the service provider should have the insurance coverage arranged by Service Provider and the Customer shall not be liable for any claim on it.
17. In the event of non-satisfactory performance of maintenance services by the Service Provider, the Customer shall have the right and discretion to terminate this agreement by giving one-month notice.
18. Any dispute arising out of this Agreement will be decided by Arbitration under laws in force for the time being and subject to jurisdiction of Chennai city.

The parties hereto have affixed their respective seal and signature to this Agreement at Chennai this day of ____ March 2013.
